

Now Hiring! Agroecosystems Entomology Lab

The Position: Lab & Field Assistant

- Assist with field and laboratory research on insect pests in West Central Nebraska.
- Assistants will travel to field sites to collect insects and plant samples from crop fields
- Field work will make up the majority of tasks and may include
 - ✓ digging up soil and plant roots,
 - ✓ collecting corn ears
 - ✓ scouting and counting insect pests
- Lab work will include processing samples using a dissecting microscope

Location

WCREEC
402 W. State
Farm Rd.,
North Platte, NE

Who Should Apply?

- Insect Science, Agronomy, Biology majors
- Those interested in applied entomology or agricultural ecosystems
- It is able to speak and write on English language
- Must be 3rd or final year of Bachelor study

How To Apply:

Send a short description of your interests and CV to: Andrea Rilaković
email: a.rilakovic@gmail.com

❖ Interested students can take ownership of own research project to present at the Entomological Society of America conference!